

CALCARVER

SPECIAL EDITION CHRISTMAS 2024

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the shop...the party was festive and unlikely to stop.

*Sawdust not flying and wood still in tact,
With hopes the wee carvings would somehow be fact. The carvers were feasting all sauced up and fed while visions of wood toys danced in their heads.*

*Those carvers,
so naughty,
relaxed for a while decked out in their finest
Christmas card
style.
Of food there
was plenty
and of guests
more than twenty!*

*Like children they frolicked and filled up their tummies
All thanks to Kim Aldrich who makes everything YUMMY!*

*The dishes
were gathered
and made
disappeared*

*As the time to give gifts
all of a sudden had neared*

*The carvers all braced to fight off their foes,
Their guests all made safe
their fingers and toes*

*They knew in their hearts what
each other had planned...*

*To get the best
gift ...
they would chop
off your hand*

*Each one told
their guests
“Be vicious, be rude”*

*“For if you are
not
you are sure to get screwed!”*

*Meek as they were by the end of the night
But one lonely soul braved to put up a fight*

*Then like all good
women, soft spoken,
less heard,
Mrs. Claus took a stand and she got the last word*

*“Now Chipper, Now Burner, Now Turner, and Birder, On Chiseller, On Gouger,
On V Gouge and Dremel Put down your beer there’s no time to stall!
Dash away! dash away! dash away all!”*

CAN YOU FIND THE CALGARY CARVERS' CARVINGS?

The picture on the right features 10 of the show and tell carvings from the Christmas party

THINK YOU'RE GOOD? Find 10 more carvings from our show and tell.

Congratulations to the winners of the PRESIDENTS CHALLENGE

SUSIE ROD

LORI FRASER

TWO WAY TIE FOR THIRD PLACE
AREZOO FAVARDIN AND MARY-LEIGH DOYLE

HONOURABLE MENTIONS GO TO NATASHA
IVANCO AND HAMID FAVARDIN

JERRY MURPHY SAYS “Merry Christmas and Happy New Year AND DON’T FORGET TO PAY YOUR
DUES!”